

Senior Partner

Philippe Odent has over 35 years' experience, among 25 years with Deloitte. Since 1992, he has made substantial efforts for the development of audit, accounting, tax and consulting activities in Africa. He participated in the establishment of Deloitte & Touche Congo s.p.r.l., Deloitte & Touche Rwanda s.a.r.l. and Deloitte Burundi s.p.r.l., for which he ensures coordination today under the name GPO Partners.

He organizes his activities in Africa with modern software.

He is member (035/04) of IRC, Congolese Institute of Certified Accountants, since 2004, and member (A041) of OPC, Burundi Order of Professional Accountants, since 2007. He was member (A00842) of IRE, Belgian Institute of Registered Auditors (Member of IFAC), from 1986 to 2020.

He is fluent in French, English and Dutch (Written and spoken).

As Statutory Auditor or Mission responsible, he has audited and advised several Belgian and international groups active in Africa, Asia, Europe, and the US and has performed many audit, valuation, and consulting missions in different countries.

He has organized many training seminars on auditing and financial analysis in Belgium and Africa.

Since 1997, in Burundi, DRC and Rwanda, as auditor, consultant and tax advisor, he has assisted many entities in various sectors of activities.